Kalili Wants U. S. Protection.

About three o'clock this morning Mr. Macaulay, in charge of the night watch of customs guards, heard a loud screaming out in the harbor. He took guard Dadoit and pulled out and found a native who gave his name as Kalili, in a boat, yelling at the top of his voice. He was finally quieted and gave Macaulay his story. He said that two policemen had, without cause, attacked him at the boat landing. That he had jumped into the first boat at hand and pulled away. The policemen followed in another boat. Kalili tried to reach the United States steamer Adams but the policemen overtook him and tried to get into his boat. Then he commenced screaming. In the struggle he lost his ears. While Mr. Macaulay was questioning the man, a boat came alongside from one of the men of war but went away upon finding that no rescue was needed. Kalili insisted upon going on board the Baltimore for protection. He was informed that the Republic of Hawaii would give him protection. So Kalili was taken to the Oceanic dock, where a number of policemen had gathered, who took him to the police station. Afterward Kalili returned to the Port Surveyor's office and remained until daylight. He was going to have protection somehow.

PORTUGUESE KINDERGARTEN.

Christmas Tree Exercises and Interesting Program this Morning.

The Portuguese kindergarten held its annual Christmas closing at 10 o'clock this morning. Parents and children were out in such force as to crowd the cheerful little home of the school on Miller street. Teachers of the other kindergartens were present.

The house was prettily decorated with living green. In the rear of the hall stood the Christmas tree, laden with gifts prepared by the children's own hands as Christmas souvenirs to their parents. Around in a circle sat the 65 pupils of the school. The sight was quite imposing.

At 10 o'clock the program began. Piano music accompanied the exercises. There were various ideas, all of them pretty and enacted in a most pleasing manner. The gifts were distributed, after which the fall session of the school came to a close. The ladies in charge of the kindergarten are Mrs. Tarbell, director, Misses Parmenter, Dias and Melim, as assistants.

Cuelho's Zobo Band.

Wm. Cuelho has received eight zobos from the States and will at once start a zobo band. A zobo is a brass horn without keys. Music is made by singing the tune through it. No practice is required. Any vocalist can play it. The instrument is a new creation and is being well received in the east, especially among schools. Cuelho's band will soon give a concert with their zobos.

Annual Literary Program.

The annual literary reception of the Y. M. C. A. will not take place on New Year's evening this year. Arrangements are being made to hold it on Monday evening, the 3rd of January. A large part of the program will be made of selections by the Y. M. C. A. orchestra, a musical aggregation which has been too little heard lately.

Art Sale Last Night.

Morgan had a full house at his auction sale of paintings at King Bros. last evening. Fair prices were realized. Before dismissing the crowd the auctioneer announced that he would hold a sale of a specially fine line of Christmas goods at his rooms on Queen street this evening.
